

Cover of the Italian newspaper "Gli Avvenimenti d' Oriente", March 1897

N. Pistolakis, El. Venizelos, K. Foumis, Ch. Papadakis, A. Sifakas and G. Mylonogiannis, members of the Committee of the Revolutionary Camp of Akrotiri, 1897

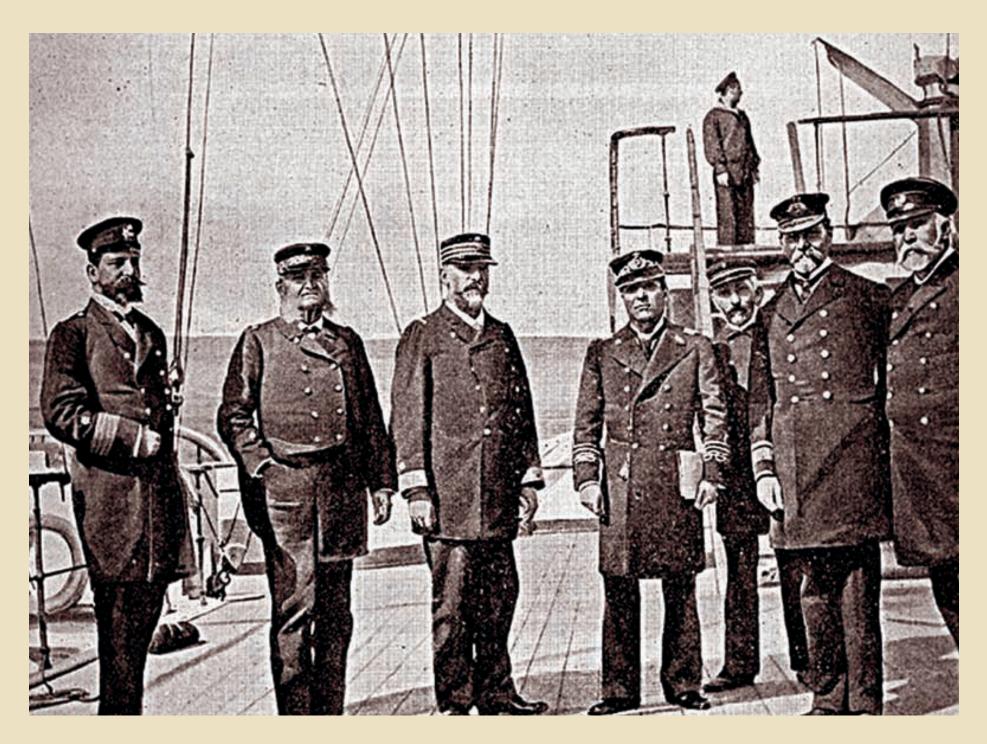

Eleftherios Venizelos in Akrotiri with his fellow rebels and representatives of the Great Powers

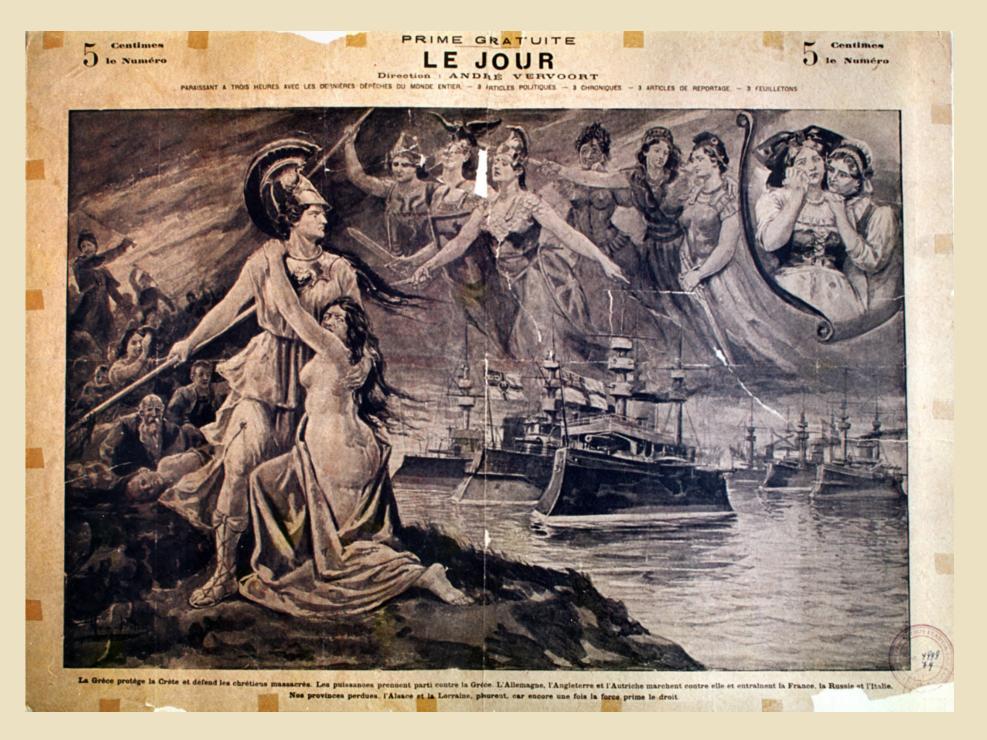

IL BOMBARDAMENTO DI AKROTIRI, PER LE NAVI DELLE GRANDI POTENZE (vedi descrizione a pag. 3).

On February 9, 1897 the fleet of the Great Powers bombarded the camp of Akrotiri

The admirals of the fleet of the Great Powers

The bombing of Christians by Christians provoked reactions on an international level, "Le Jour", 1897

Fire in Chania during the riots of 1897

International occupation in Crete

Revolutionary Assembly for the elections of the Executive Body, July 1898

Revolutionary Assembly in Plakoures-Chania, 1898

Placeurès 1893. Insurrectionelle Assemblee

The first Executive Council of Crete in 1898 that was set up before the arrival of George, High Commissioner of Crete. Seated (left to right): Eleftherios Venizelos, Ioannis Sfakianakis (president) and Nikolaos Yiamalakis• standing: A. Hadjidakis, G. Myloyiannis, E. Zaharakis

Lithograph from the Collection of the National - Historical Museum, depicting the bombing of Akrotiri, 1897